From The East

Brethren,

"There was once a Cossack who saw a rabbi walking through the town square nearly every day at about the same time. One day he asked curiously: "Where are you going, rabbi?" The rabbi answered: "I am not sure." "You pass this way every day at this time. Surely, you know where you're going." When the rabbi insisted that he did not know, the Cossack became irritated, then suspicious, and finally took the rabbi to jail. Just as he was locking the cell, the rabbi faced him and said gently: "You see, I didn't know." Before the Cossack interrupted him, the rabbi knew where he was going, but afterward, he no longer knew. The interruption (we can call it a measurement) offered new possibilities. This is the message of quantum mechanics. The world is not determined by initial conditions, once and for all. Every event of measurement is potentially creative and may open new possibilities." — Amit Goswami, The Self-Aware Universe

Where are you going as a mason? What events will change where you thought you would be? As my personal experience can attest to I had no idea when I first knelt at the altar where I would be at the end of my 9th year. Be willing to follow the path your higher self tells you to go down, trust your soul, not your ego.

The month of December will be full of Masonry for all of us. The Christmas season will keep all of us busy, but try to do all we can for the lodge. Events not on the calendar, Putnam Lodge in So. Woodstock Conn will be holding its fumigation event on Dec 2nd. Four of us will be going from Nashua. A VERY FUN DAY, if interested let me know. Candle light stroll at Strawberry Bank, I will be working it Dec 16th 5 to 9 pm. If interested let me know. Have a joyous holiday season for all brothers and their families.

Please look at the email sent by grand lodge for the results of the GL meeting. Wor. Phil Coburn with his masonic family and RW DDGM Bob Porter will be at our stated. FILL THE SIDELINES!! Knightfall on the history channel starts on Wed Dec 6th 10pm. I want to thank all of the brothers who made our MM degree a great success despite the plague.

Yours in Masonry
